the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA) and the New England Journal of Medicine (NEJM).

These two journals are the most widely read and cited in the field of medicine. They are also the most expensive, with JAMA costing $1,200 per year and NEJM costing $1,500 per year.

Other journals in the field of medicine include the British Medical Journal (BMJ), the Lancet, and the Annals of Internal Medicine (AIM).

These journals are also widely read and cited, but they are not as expensive as JAMA and NEJM. The BMJ costs $600 per year, the Lancet costs $700 per year, and AIM costs $800 per year.

There are many other journals in the field of medicine, but these are the most important ones. They are the ones that you should read if you are a medical professional or a student of medicine.

These journals are also the ones that you should cite if you are writing a paper or a book. They are the most authoritative sources of information in the field of medicine.

These journals are also the ones that you should subscribe to if you are a medical professional or a student of medicine. They are the most important sources of information in the field of medicine.
